CAYLEY A. RODD

HON. B. COMM., J.D., LL.B.

Areas of Practice: Business & Corporate Services, Real Estate, Wills &

Cayley is a trusted legal advisor to business owners and their families and she values the opportunities she's had to work with multiple generations of business owners, assisting in the ongoing success of their ventures. Cayley's clients trust her legal and business insights and are confident in the quality of her legal services. They value her responsive attention to their ongoing needs.

Cayley works with all types of business owners including doctors, dentists, veterinarians, farmers, car dealerships, and manufacturers. She assists in all aspects of their businesses, including buying and selling assets or companies, financing, commercial leasing and maintaining corporate records. She also helps business owners with their commercial real estate needs and their wills and estate planning, including succession planning for their businesses.

Cayley also represents public institutions in a general advisory capacity, assists banks with commercial financing transactions, and helps not for profit and charitable organizations with incorporations, applications for charitable status, and on-going corporate maintenance.

Since moving to Simcoe County in January 2018, Cayley has enjoyed the opportunity of working alongside senior Barrie business lawyers, Eric Taves and Michael Reed. Prior to joining the firm Cayley practiced with Pavey Law LLP in Cambridge and with Torys LLP in Toronto.

Cayley has presented at seminars hosted by local Real Estate Boards and Chambers of Commerce as well as to smaller groups organized by local banking institutions, other organizations, and stroke survivor organizations and welcomes the opportunity to speak to other groups.

Cayley is a member of the Rotary Club of Barrie, having previously been the president and treasurer of the Rotary Club of Cambridge (Preston-Hespeler). Cayley is past-Chair of the Board of Women's Crisis Services of Waterloo Region

Outside of the office, she enjoys reading all varieties of books, has very eclectic tastes in music and stays active by curling, cross-country skiing, snow-shoeing and exploring the County's highways by bicycle.
